

Preston Lloyd Helps Bonaventure Realty Group Win Land Use Rezoning Approval for 125-Unit Senior Living Facility

05.23.2019

On May 16, 2019, the Henrico County Board of Supervisors approved a land use rezoning request that will permit Bonaventure Realty Group to build a $25 million, 125-unit senior living facility in the Carriage Hill apartment community.

Williams Mullen land use attorney Preston Lloyd represented Bonaventure throughout the rezoning process. To read an article on the project from the Richmond Times-Dispatch, click here.
