

Williams Mullen Welcomes Litigation Attorney Evan Tucker

09.10.2020

Williams Mullen is pleased to announce that Evan Tucker has joined the firm as an associate in our Litigation Practice. Mr. Tucker will be based in the Richmond office and will focus on general litigation matters.

Before joining Williams Mullen, Mr. Tucker served as the law clerk to The Honorable James J. Reynolds, Chief Judge of the Twenty-Second Circuit of Virginia, and to The Honorable Joseph W. Milam Jr.

Mr. Tucker earned his J.D. from William & Mary Law School, where he was a staff member on the Environmental Law & Policy Review and an Associate Chair on the Law School Honor Council. During law school, Mr. Tucker served as a research assistant to Professors Neal E. Devins and Allison Orr Larsen, interned with the Virginia Attorney General's Office's Government Operations & Transactions Division, and interned with the Dinwiddie County Commonwealth's Attorney's Office. Mr. Tucker earned the Public Service Award for his work during law school.
