

Carter Whitelow Selected for Sorensen Institute's Political Leaders Program

02.22.2022

Congratulations to Carter Whitelow on being selected to participate in the Sorensen Institute's 2022 Political Leaders program. Carter is one of 38 individuals selected for this year's program, which is a leadership development program for residents of Virginia interested in becoming more active in public service, whether as community leaders or as elected officials. The program meets once a month from March until December throughout Virginia and focuses on four core subjects: public policy, experiential learning, ethics in public service, and influencers in the political and governing process.
