

"Looking Ahead" Williams Mullen Partner Alyssa Carducci Dangler Shares 2023 Plan As CREW Network President

01.23.2023

Williams Mullen partner Alyssa Carducci Dangler recently shared her plans for 2023 as the president for CREW Network.

CREW Network is the premier business network dedicated to transforming the commercial real estate industry by advancing women globally. Dangler is the first representative from Virginia to lead the organization which has over 12,000 members worldwide.

A partner in the firm's real estate and finance practice and chair of the tax credit practice, Dangler represents clients nationwide on a variety of acquisition, disposition, financing and leasing matters, particularly in the multifamily, hotel, retail, industrial, mixed-use and office sectors. She provides strategic counsel in the development and financing of affordable housing, including low-income housing tax credits. Her practice also includes navigating clients through the unique challenges of solar and wind electric generation. Dangler is a member of the board of trustees of the REACH Foundation and of the CIVIC Leadership Institute.
