

M&A Webinar Series: Unique Considerations in Petroleum & Commercial Fuel Transactions

09.19.2023

If you'd like to watch recordings or download materials from the previous installments of our M&A Webinar Series, click here.

It has been an active time for transactions in the Petroleum and Commercial Fuel industries as long-standing family concerns cash out and institutional buyers look to drive shareholder value. These deals can be fraught with legal, business and compliance challenges unique to the industry but very familiar to those of us who regularly work in this space.

Join Williams Mullen partners Otto Konrad and Larry Parker as they discuss what we are seeing and how best to navigate around potential hurdles on your next deal. Click here to register.
